

The Dr. Marvin E. Hartig Memorial Scholarship

Family, friends and loved ones of the late Dr. Marvin E. Hartig are pleased to announce the application process for the Dr. Marvin E. Hartig Memorial Scholarship. This scholarship is dedicated to the loving memory of Dr. Hartig, Dean of Evansville College's Evening College in 1967, and administrator for the Center for Advanced Study, director of the Evansville chapter of the American Institute of Banking (AIB), and the international student advisor. In 1974, Dr. Hartig was appointed Dean of Academic Services. He retired in 1984 after serving his alma mater for thirty-five years and passed away in 2007.

This scholarship will be awarded each year to a deserving sophomore student with demonstrated financial need as shown by the results of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Preference will be given to a student working while being enrolled as a full-time student.

International students are encouraged to apply. Please include in your essay your particular financial need, since international students do not have FAFSA forms on file.

Applicants must submit the following to be considered:

- Completed application
- In a one page, single spaced, 12 point Verdana font essay, please answer all of these questions:
  - What have you learned about yourself as a UE student?
  - What do you do for fun when not studying or working?
  - Name a special attribute or accomplishment that sets you apart.
  - You have done a lot in your short life. In what areas do you think you can improve?
  - What are your scholastic and career goals?
  - How did you finance your freshman year and how will you finance your sophomore year?
  - Why are you a good candidate to receive this scholarship?
  - What have you learned about Dr. Hartig, how does he influence or inspire you, and how will you preserve his legacy as recipient of this scholarship?

Deadline: Please return all materials to the Office of Financial Aid by June 1, 2017. Decision will be announced by August 1, 2017.
